EASTERN BRANCH GUN CLUB.

Handicap Shoot Comes Off July 4. The Eastern Branch Gun Club had its weekly shoot on the club's grounds north of the city jail Tuesday evening last, and there was an excellent attendance of the members and friends of the club. Throughout the entire afternoon high northwest winds prevailed and prevented the making of good scores. Messrs. Wagner, McCartney, Hann, Orrison, A. Varela, Byrd, Lohr, Hildreth, Etzler, Torry, Smith, Peyton, Mc-Kenney, Dr. Varela and others took part in the shoot. July 4 will be a gala day with the club, and the regular monthly handcap shoot will take place that day at 10 a.m. Interest in club matters continues to grow and the Eastern Branch is now one of the most prosperous of the local marksmen's organizations. The new club house recently erected on the club grounds has been fitted up, and its comforts add much to the weekly shoots of the club.

Special Dispatch to The Star

BOSTON, Mass., June 30.-The champions look the first game in the series with the Nationals by the close score of 4 to 3. It was mostly a pitchers' battle, in which Hughes held his own with Tannehill, but he lacked the same steadiness at all times. The game was replete with sensational plays, in which the Nationals showed up prominently. Cassidy made a backhanded catch of Parent's drive that was shoulder high, the ball being fastened to his glove hand. Jones made a running catch of a long hit which robbed Ferris of a three-bagger, going clear to the center field bleachers for the ball. As usual the teams traveled on even terms and what few misplays there were counted in the result.

Mullen led at the bat for the Nationals, his drive to the extreme left corner of the grounds for three bases being one of the longest hits of the season. He connected for a clean double, also, which scored a run.

Boston had several chances to score, but fine fielding by the Nationals spoiled the run getting. In the fourth inning the bases were filled, but no run crossed the plate, and in nearly every round the champions had men on the bases.

The champions were the first to score, when Hughes passed both Criger and Tannehill and the corners were filled by Stahl drepping Mullen's throw of Seloach's grounder. Criger was forced at the plate by Parent and Burkett fanned, but "Chick" Stahl came to time with a screeching single to center, which scored Tannehill ing single to center, which scored Tannehill and Selbach.

The Nationals drew even in the next inning. After Stahi had fanned, Kroll got a life on Tannehill's fumble of his twisting ground hit. Mullen bumped a double to left, scoring Knoll. Mullen got the other with the control of Casada's single run on Cassidy's single.

Burkett's triple in the fifth paved the way for the champions' lead, as he scored on a play made for him at the plate. Another run came in the seventh, when Ferris, who drew a pass, got around on Selbach's single bach's single.

With one down in the ninth, Mullen clouted a three-bagger and got the run on Cassidy's double. Hunter Hill batted for Kittredge, but falled to do anything.

New York, 13; Athletics, 4.

The Highlanders outplayed Philadelphia in all departments of yesterday's game at New York, and won by a score of 13 to 4. Bender, who pitched for the Athletics, besides being hit hard, was extremely wild, and received wretched support. Lord, the center fielder of Philadelphia, was the only man on his side that could get more than one hit off Orth's delivery. He made three hits. One was a three-bagger and one a two-base hit. Cleveland and Detroit played off two postponed games yesterday afternoon in the former city, Cleveland winning the first by bunching hits on Killian. St. Stephens tried a new pitcher, and he was lucky to get away with his game, as only grand support kept the score down. Hughes showed good headwork by getting into the game himself in the fourth inning, as he scored three runs. Leahy, in center, made a pretty one hand catch with men on bases, but spoiled his record by dropping an easy fly in the eighth. Farrell knocked down a hot liner and got his man at first. The score:

Fine Batting Rally Tied Up Nationals and Carrolls.

The Nationals could do nothing with Dawson until the ninth inning, when they hit the ball hard. Boone, batting for Quigley, drove Woodward in ahead of him with his home-run drive. Errors allowed Fitzpatrick and Jenkins to score. Both sides vere retired in order in the tenth. Both pitchers were effective, Dawson hav ing a shade the best of it. Carroll Institute got more hits, but they did not come at the right time. Keane did the best batting and played a star flelding game. Venable also picked up everything that came his way. The score:

off in the Capital City League yesterday, at the White Lot. The champion St. Stephens saved themselves from seeming defeat by a rally in the last inning and won from the Aloysius nine. The National Athletic Club managed to tie the Carroll Institute team in the ninth by heavy batting in the game at 14th and A streets northeast

St. Stephen's Won Out in Last Inning. The largest crowd of the season viewed the White Lot game, and rooted vociferously for the winners. Aloysius was shy a regular catcher, so Ricker did duty behind the bat. His passed balls were costly. Al Handiboe put them over for the losers, and with ordinary support, particularly in the last inning, would have had the honor of downing the champs.

McCathran pitched a game for the Saints that would have won against any conent but Clark in the box, and champions' star slant server, the former getting seven strikeouts to his credit against five for Clark. Both had splendid Neither team was up to its mark in fielding, although there were some good individual plays, Willis and McKenney carrying off the honors in right field. King had another off day, dropping two assists, and Xander at short was slow in getting the ball away from him. Macdonald, who leads his team is batting, kept up his sticking for a single and home run. St. Stephen's lost a good chance in the fourth inning to land enough scores to tieup the game, but with Rhodes, Lynham and Macdonald on the bases, the best Xander could do was to poke an easy one to Warman. With five runs needed to tie the losers made a grand rally in the ninth. After Macdonald's single, Xander flew out to right. Willis then slammed a safe one to center and stole second. McCathran pushed a slow one to King and beat it out, and Thomas was safe on King's error. With two runs in and only one out St. Stephen's chances looked fair, but Hayden and Conner popped out to Bielaski and Aitcheso and it was all over. The score:

Douglas Won Hard Game From Mt. Vernons.

After running nip and tuck with the danger signal flying from both teams the Douglas boys claimed a victory from the Mt. Vernons in the eleventh round by the score of 11 to 10, on the White Lot yesterday afternoon.

For eight innings it looked as though the Mt. Vernon boys were going to have things their own way, but with the usual fatal luck they eased up in the ninth and allowed the Douglas to tie the score. Then for two innings each side tied until the eleventh, when on four straight hits, the Douglas boys crossed the plate for two In the field the winners played all around the "Green Socks," making but three er-rors to the Mt. Vernon eleven. At every stage of the game the Douglas boys showed their superiority of knowledge over the losing team, and three double plays of the hair-raising variety were participated in by its members.

The batting honors of the day were evenly divided between Harris, Conway and Draeger, each having three to their credit. The batting was not at all spectacular, but one long hit being made. The score:

One of the largest crowds of the season was on hand and rooted for the picked nine, which to their satisfaction won out.

Two pitchers were used up on both sides, Webb being the first to be taken out, he being succeeded in the fourth by Williams, after the Insurgents had scored six runs after the Insurgents had scored six runs.
